

MEDIA BIAS ANALYSIS

Silom Stabbing Incident

Comparing how two Thai news outlets covered the same event

June 27–28, 2026

Silom Soi 5, Bangkok

Assault & Weapon Charge

Sources Compared

MGR Online vs Naew Na / LINE Today

What Happened?

The facts, in plain terms

The Attack

A homeless man slashed a woman with a box cutter on a Silom sidewalk.

The Victim

A 29-year-old Vietnamese worker. Needed 14 stitches for her arm wound.

The Arrest

Police and bystanders caught him nearby. Box cutter seized as evidence.

The Motive

He confessed: "I don't like fat people." Police checking his mental health history.

SOURCE A

MGR Online

"สืลมะรหึก! รวบชายไร้บ้านใช้คัตเตอร์ทำร้ายชาวต่างชาติ อ้างไม่ชอบคนอ้วน"

"Silom Thriller! Homeless man caught using cutter to attack foreigner, claims dislike of fat people"

Tone

Sensational — "thrilling" headline

Framing

Suspect = scary wandering outsider

Key Detail

Mentions police ignored earlier warnings

SOURCE B

Naew Na / LINE Today

"ระทึกสึลม หนุมร่างยักษ์คลั่ง ไล่ทำร้ายคน สารภาพเกลียดคนอ้วน"

"Silom Thriller: Raging giant of a man chases and attacks people, confesses he hates fat people"

Tone

Even more dramatic — "raging giant"

Framing

Names officers, praises police response

Key Detail

Skips the fact that police ignored earlier warnings

Side-by-Side

	MGR Online	Naew Na
Headline	"Thrilling"	"Raging Giant"
Medical Info	Vague — "safe now"	Specific — 14 stitches
Police Angle	Community caught him	Named officers praised
Police Failure?	✔ Mentioned	✗ Left out
Suspect Label	Wandering outsider	Dangerous "giant"

3 Roles of Media 🗣️🎭

Gatekeeper · Agenda-Setter · Watchdog

Gatekeeper

MGR led with shock value. Naew Na led with police success. Both picked what to spotlight.

Agenda-Setter

MGR pushes "police negligence" as a talking point. Naew Na pushes "police efficiency" instead.

Watchdog

Biggest gap: Naew Na omits that police ignored earlier complaints — shielding them from blame.

Verdict

MGR Online

Partially Biased

- ✓ Mentions police inaction
- ✗ Sensational headline
- ✗ Leads with shock, not substance

Naew Na

More Biased

- ✗ Hides police inaction
- ✗ Dehumanizing language
- ✗ Reads like a police statement

Both outlets show bias through selective framing — neither source fully plays the watchdog role this story needed.